

Magnet Component Word Scramble

1. Documentation and information that are foundational to Magnet Organizations. These requirements must be met before appraisers will review any other examples/documentation:

AARIGLOTNNAOZ EWRIWVO _____

2. All Magnet organizations must demonstrate that their CNO communicates expectations, develops leaders, and evolves the organization to meet current and anticipated needs and strategic priorities:

INNTATMRSOALFROA PEHDLRAESI _____

3. The organization involves professional nurses in shared governance: decision-making structures and processes that establish standards of practice and address opportunities for improvement:

TCUSUTLRAR NMPOEWETERM _____

4. Magnet-recognized organizations provide evidence of this component by effective and efficient care services, interprofessional collaboration, and high-quality patient outcomes:

MAXRLYPEE OOFINERASSLP TARCIECP _____

5. Innovations in patient care, nursing, and the practice environment are the hallmark of Magnet organizations. Establishing new ways of achieving high-quality, effective, and efficient care are the outcomes of an organization which demonstrates all of the Magnet components:

NWE EWLKGEND OTIVNNAINO NMMPSIVEOETR _____

